Re: RR 12L-20 Letter Dated May 2, 2012

Dear Mr. Jordan:

The following is information regarding a possible violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, stemming from actions of the Carney for Congress campaign in not reporting receipts and disbursements in a timely manner.

1) Concerning the October 2009 quarterly filing, the $4000.00 increase was due to receipt of a check lost in the mail as noted in the filing.

2) In early October, 2010:

I then immediately notified Congressman Carney. Unfortunately, I was unable to provide close day-to-day supervision and several invoices for television ad time did not come to my attention until several weeks after the election. In addition, some contributions were not included in the October filing. After I realized the need for amendments to the filings.

3) I notice that the exact same memo text appears in several of the filings. I believe this must have occurred due to a software bug that continued to append the same text.

In addition, on January 10, 2012, I notified Carney that I was resigning as treasurer of the Committee. It was my understanding that he would notify the FEC and appoint a new treasurer. Last week I discovered that I was still listed as the treasurer. I then sent the FEC a certified letter indicating my resignation.

I am contemplating arranging for counsel. I will file the notice of counsel when arrangements are finalized.

Sincerely,

Larry Golden
